Stanzi: Ok episode 2 of What Fresh Hell Is This? With me, Stanzi Potenza. On today's show, we'll be checking in with our old friend, Satan and some breaking news about all of the smut you've been reading you filthy fuck. How do you live with yourself??

Stanzi: Hello and welcome to "What Fresh Hell is This?" with me, Stanzi Potenza. I'm excited for this episode and all of the nonsense we're going to get ourselves into. I have been a content machine recently between everything that I'm making for Tiktok and Instagram, the podcast, and also some other projects that I'm working on. I feel like I am in a creative renaissance and it's very exciting for me. I still try to maintain some of the classics like Heaven and Hell for example. I actually made a heaven and hell video recently in response to this Jesus dude on tiktok and the funny thing about those sketches is that so many religious people hop in the comments and try to own me by being like "Idiot, Satan has no control over who goes to hell. It says it right there in Leviathan 6:9." Like man, I'm just making my little jokes, I don't know what's going on. I didn't read the bible, I was raised atheist. They almost talk like nerds who are trying to gatekeep Yu-Gi-Oh! Cards or something. "Ha! You fool, clearly you didn't know that you had to special summon Uria, Lord of Searing Flames. Total newb behavior." That's an actual Yu-Gi-Oh card, yes, I used to collect them. I'm very quirky and interesting and have so much character depth.

Speaking of heaven and hell, I believe Satan yet again has his hands full with nothing but absolute bullshit.

Joanne: Uhm Satan?

Satan: Yes Joanne?

Joanne: I don't know how to say this but...there's this missionary here.

Satan: Pardon me?

Joanne: A missionary

Satan: I'm so in awe of their stupidity and perhaps bravery.

Joanne: Should I...kill him?

Satan: You know what, I got time. Let's see how much audacity this motherfucker really has.

Noah: Hello there

Satan and Joanne:(synchronized) hiiiiii

Noah: I wanted to talk to you about God today.

Satan: Tell me something I don't know.

Noah: God is the creator of all things and the only one who can lead us all to salvation.

Satan: I don't know why you think you know more about the dude than I do.

Noah: I put my faith into God and that's how I know.

Satan: Okay, well I see him almost every day.

Noah: And yet you take his gift so lightly.

Satan: Bro, where do you think you are right now? I don't know if you think I'm the final boss of your missionary journey or what but you truly do not know this man. You are nothing more than a product of a live action sims game that he has honestly kind of forgotten about to be frank.

Noah: God would never abandon his creation, every day I feel his love.

Satan: You are to god what Neopets is to human millennials. He knows you're there, he knows you're dying, but he's too fucking lazy to log on and feed you an omelette.

Noah: The bitterness you feel is nothing more than the darkness trying to drag you down and pull you in it's the-

Satan: It's the what? The devil?

Noah: Well-

Satan: Man you got some balls on you, I'll give you that. I will give you that, Noah.

Noah: All I want is to spread God's love.

Satan: Noted, and I'll just say that I know God's love, I have physically felt the inside of his love.

Joanne: Ugh

Noah: Wait what?

Satan: Don't think too hard about it okay? You'll hurt yourself. Anyway, I gotta get back to torturing. Motherfucker, do you even know how to get out of here?

Noah: Well uhm...

Satan: Son of a bitch. Joanne, would you mind showing him out of here?

Joanne: I'm on it.

Abaddon: Oh, Lucy! There you are.

Satan: Abaddon, I just had a mortal missionary in my office and I don't mean to make any assumptions but I feel in my soul that you had something to do with it.

Abaddon: That is because I did do that. I did. That was me.

Satan: Why OH why do you continue to throw a wrench in my plans?

Abaddon: Don't be mad but on earth I like to disguise myself as a youth pastor and spread bullshit like the plague, or spread bullshit like Timothee Chalamet spread chlamydia at his college if you will.

Satan: Why? Why do you do this?

Abaddon: It's fun for me. They just gobble up everything I say. The power I feel is titillating.

Satan: Did you show that dude how to get into hell?

Abaddon: I did.

Satan: Abaddon, do not fuck around with all of the realms.

Abaddon: Stop yelling at me, you know I find it deeply arousing.

[Phone Ringing]

Satan: God dammit, God's calling me. Hello?

[Atmospheric heaven music in the background with birds chirping]

God: Hey, are you kidnapping mortals bestie?

Satan: No, Abaddon opened a portal from the mortal realm to hell and let a missionary in.

Abaddon: Hi god! Tell him I said hi

God: Is that abbadon now?

Satan: Yes.

God: Oh...You guys seem close.

Satan: I'm hanging up.

God: Wait-

Satan: I'm hanging up.

God: That son of a bitch hung up on me. They're fucking right? They're totally-

Denise: If you try to talk to me about your sex life I will kill myself.

God: Empathy is zero dollars Denise.

[UNSCRIPTED SEGMENT]

Stanzi: Y'all, my fan base has such a variety of characters. We have alt kids, anime fans, theatre kids, historians, doctors, and so on. That's at least partially due to the fact that my comedy style has a bit of range. I talk about politics, current events, pop culture, and also some things that are a little more niche. One of those things is something I would like to discuss today.

I get a lot of comments on my omegaverse videos saying “I have no idea what you’re talking about but I still think this is funny.” Well kids, today daddy Stanzi is going to tell you what you’re missing. The omegaverse originated in the Supernatural fandom and it’s an erotic alternate universe that focuses on the dominance hierarchy of alphas, betas, and omegas. Alphas are dominant, the “tops” if you will and the omegas are their submissive counterparts. Betas are neutral and don’t play into the same dynamic. So in this universe if a man is an omega he can get pregnant. So that’s it, now you are in on the joke. Any time I refer to myself as an alpha or talk about pheromones, or call someone submissive and breedable, that’s what I am referring to. I had no idea how to feel about this alternate universe. The first comic I read about it was called Love Shuttle on Lezhincomics.com and I wasn’t sure how to feel. You know that audio that goes “At first I was like ‘mmm feet’ as a joke, but bro, i don’t think it’s a joke anymore” Yeah, it’s like that for me now. If you were already aware of all of this, and this is all old news to you, I have some breaking news that you need to listen to.

[SCRIPTED SKETCH: BREAKING NEWS]

BREAKING NEWS: If you are hearing this right now it is because the out of pocket smut you read is going to launch you straight into the depths of hell. The FBI has released a statement saying that you are currently on a watch list and are shocked and appalled upon discovering what gets you off. Neighboring locals who spoke to police said that they always knew you were an unhinged weirdo, but knowing the contents of the tabs opened on your private browser gave them confirmation they didn’t need. Local authorities who discovered your phone at the scene are crying and throwing up and are currently receiving psychological counseling for what they saw. When we talked to one officer on the scene, he said he had no idea that fetishes like that existed and he believes it will take some time to go back to how things were before he read chapter one of that webcomic. We don’t mean to kink shame but damn, bitch. We are wishing all of the first responders a speedy recovery, and we are wishing you some grass to touch bitch, the fuck? More on this later I’m Stanzi Potenza, this is Call Out News.

[OUTRO]

I wrote that breaking news segment and then last night I had a friend over and she made the fatal error of asking me about what the omegaverse was. So I went into it, I explained basically everything I just told you guys and then I told her about how I play a game where I assign people their omegaverse roles in my head which started becoming a joke in my family. So I was talking about my sisters and their boyfriends like “Oh yeah Nella is an alpha, Jack is a beta, Tori is an omega, Garrett’s a beta.” She asked what her and her wife would be and I said “Oh you’re both alphas.” When we got to my mom we were both like “alpha for sure.” I said something along the lines of “being an alpha doesn’t mean you have to flaunt how dominant you are all the time” and my mom, who was already a few glasses in goes “I don’t need to prove to anyone that I’m an alpha” which was hilarious to me and I think is a testament to how chill my family is about the unhinged nonsense that I have introduced into their lives. On that note, I hope you enjoyed today’s episode and I’m looking forward to not only the new sketches I have in store for you on this podcast but also letting you in more on what goes on in my life and the hilarity that occurs between my family and I. I hope you have an amazing week, and I will see you in hell.
